Honorable Robert E. Gerber, United States Bankruptcy Judge
Alexander Hamilton Custom House
One Bowling Green
New York, NY 10004-1408

Dear Honorable Mr. Gerber,

I recently was sent a Notice of Hearing for General Motors bankruptcy chapter 11 plan.

As a stockholder since 1956 recent decisions concerning General Motors have troubled and saddened me, but I had no one to share my concerns with.

My grandfather, George Kimmel Henry began as a salesman for Buick in 1903. He'd left the railroad, his first daughter had just died from the flu epidemic, and he got up out of a sick bed determined to provide for his family. He eventually bought the dealership, and survived during World War two selling parts. In 1953 he was awarded a silver trophy from General Motors commending him for distinguished sales achievement. I've inherited that trophy. When I was eleven years old he gave me five shares of General Motors Stock. (I include a copy of that certificate.) August 3, 1956.

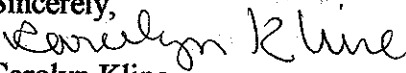

Sometime in my twenties I was offered an option of reinvesting my dividends. At that time I received fifty cents a share quarterly. I agreed and my shares began to grow. In 1989 there was a stock split and I received a certificate for an additional five shares. (I include a copy of that certificate.) March 31, 1989.

I also include a summary of my holdings as of December 2006. At that time I had ten shares in certificate form and fifty two point seven dividend reinvestment shares. (I include a copy of that statement.)

In review I've never had plans to share my stock. I've planned to divide the stock between my three children as a small legacy from their great-grandfather. Now what can I tell them was the value of this man's life? What can I tell them about right and wrong, or is it all relative when a company can be taken over by the government, and then sold to new stockholders to repay the debt. The original stockholders like me left with nothing.

You are a Judge, Mr. Gerber. I want my stock. I am appealing to you to do the right thing and stand up to these forces.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Kline
